

Parking Safety Tips

Stow your stuff.
Lock your vehicle.
Take your keys.

The Indianapolis Metropolitan Police Department is working to reduce preventable crimes and make your convention and expo experience safe. The driver of the vehicle is responsible for the security of the vehicle and the items left inside. National FFA and parking lot operators can't guarantee the safety of unattended vehicles. Help us help you!

The driver of the vehicle is responsible for the security of the vehicle and the items left inside. Parking lot operators cannot guarantee the safety of unattended vehicles.

Follow these tips to ensure a positive Indianapolis experience:

1. Always lock your car and/or bus.
2. If your vehicle cannot be locked:
  - a. Leave the driver with the vehicle to protect luggage and other personal items.
  - b. Unload all valuables and secure them at your hotel.
3. Do not leave valuables inside your vehicle, but if you must, stow valuables out of sight, in the trunk or a locked storage compartment.
4. Do not store an extra key under the car, fender or gas cap or anywhere on the vehicle.
5. Make sure that your parking pass is clearly visible to the parking lot/garage attendant.
6. Only park in approved areas.
7. If you are going to lock valuables in your vehicle, do so before you arrive at the parking area.
