LIVING TO SERVE

2017-2018 FFA Day of Service Mini-Grant Award Timelines

The date of the service event will determine when best to apply. Using the table below, find the two and half-month period between when service events can begin and must be completed to identify when to submit an application. If an application is submitted with a service event date before the posted start date for that month, the grant will not be funded. An application submitted with a service event date after the posted completion date for the current month will not be reviewed until the first eligible month. Items in red have been updated.
