Awards and Recognition Advisory Committee

Created: 04/2016

The National FFA Awards and Recognition Advisory Committee is a group of representatives from key stakeholders that provide relevant guidance and assistance to all award and recognition programs.

ADVISORY COMMITTEE MEMBERSHIP, TERMS AND CHAIR APPOINTMENT

The awards and recognition committee consists of representatives from the following key stakeholder groups:

- Two business and industry representatives identified by the National FFA with input from COO and National FFA Foundation and added to the advisory committee
- Two members, who are agricultural education instructors, selected by the National Association of Agricultural Educators (NAAE)
- Two members, who are state staff, selected by the National Association, Supervisors of Agricultural Education (NASAE)
- Two members who are teacher educators, selected by the American Association of Agricultural Education (AAAE)
- One student member who is a representative of the National FFA current membership (This representative will be selected based on regional rotation (eastern, southern, central and western). This student term will be a one-year term.)
- One member who is an awards program superintendent selected by National FFA staff and award program superintendents.

TERMS

Advisory committee members serve a three-year term.

- Committee Chair: The chair of the National Awards and Recognition Advisory Committee will be the representative selected by the superintendents of the SAE, National Chapter, Agriscience Fair and CDE/LDE event committees to serve on the Awards and Recognition Advisory Committee. The representative's term as chairperson will run concurrent with his or her three-year term on the advisory committee.
- The current award and recognition committee superintendents will serve as consultants.
